this country East of the Mississippi River, and all large towns and cities

The Journal reaches every corner of

PRICE ONE CENT.

NO. 4,995.

SOME POPULISTS SURE TO BOLT.

Ticket Is Likely to Be Named.

Money Is Being Used with Effect

Taubeneck Declares That Some Delegates Favor Joining the Republicans.

CHAIRMAN DENOUNCED BY STEWART, were known to possess

The Senator Asserts That Third Partyites Who Want to Support McKinley Are Traitors-Towne Not a Candidate.

St. Louis, July 19 .- The fight between the Bryan and anti-Bryan Populists was fiercegates from the West and Northwest, say the Democratic ticket will be nominated or indorsed and the Chicago platform adopted. The "antis," led by National Chairman Taubeneck and "Cyclone" Davis, of Texas, say a Populistic platform pure and simple will be adopted, a third ticket nominated and a fusion made, if possible, on electoral Chairman Taubeneck, who had been absent from the city for two days on some mys terious errand, broke his silence last night and declared for the nomination of another ticket. The report was circulated to-day that the Chicago Collseum management had been asked for a donation of $1,500 to help defray the expenses of another Populistic convention at Chicago. This convention is to be, presumably, a bolting convention. The news created much commen among delegates. No one is prepared to say if the anti-Bryan faction seeks this donation for another convention.

The impression prevails in certain quar-ters that Hanna is trying to remove monetary obstacles from the path of prospective bolters. There has never been a conven-tion where the talk of "boodle" has been so openly and emphatically made. That Hanna has sent down money for judicious distribution is firmly believed.

Follow Hanna's Wishes. Penator Stewart has a moral conviction to that the et, and Bryan deregates, to discussing the matter, shrug their shoulders, profess their inability to furnish proof, and

The anti-Bryan people, however, are doing exactly what Hanna approves."

Senators Stewart and Peffer and General

J. B. Weaver, of Iowa, have been counsel-

"Are you for free silver?" asked Stewart. 'Certainly," said Taubeneck.

Denounces Chairman Taubeneck. 'A third ticket promotes McKinley's in-face an apoplectic look. He said loudly: "Then you fellows are traitors! Then to play into McKinley's hands. That sort why all holding those views should not get out of the Populist party. I thought you were fighting for a principle and would welcome an opportunity to get it. I see I welcome an opportunity to get it. I see I "Let me explain," said Haralson.

"Let me explain," said Haralson.

"Let me explain," said Haralson."

"Let me explain," said Haralson." for him irrespective of what certain leaders is a fool," exclaimed Haralson.

company Mr. Gould further than Halifar, Bryan be nominated formally and that the Bryan be nominated formally and the the Bryan be nominated formally and the dev this afternoon. Mr. Peffer suggested that

THREE KILLED IN A FIRE. COULD TO TURN

of Life and a List of Injured Numbering Ten Men.

Chicago, Ill., July 19.-Three men lost their lives and ten men were injured in the their lives and ten men were injured in the fire which destroyed the car barns of the Chicago City Railway Company, at Cottage Grove avenue and Thirty-ninth street, last

Ticket le Likely to their lives and ten men were injured in the fire which destroyed the car barns of the Chicago City Railway Company, at Cottage Grove avenue and Thirty-ninth street, last

Trade at the Mercy of Warner's tetralogy, "Der Ring des

The names of the dead are Patrick J. Martin, a conductor; William L. Elwell, a driver, and Frank Crosby, a tow-boy. Al-

It was not until daylight that the ruins of the big barn had cooled sufficiently to permit the firemen to make an investiga-tion. Shortly before that it was learned working with other employes, trying to save cars and other property.

When dug out of the rules the remains

CARD ROW ENDS FATALLY.

Two Prominent Men Wind Up a Game with Blows That Killed One of Them.

Jacksonville, Fla., July 19 .- In a moment

ARCTIC EXPLORER.

Among Icebergs.

Belief Grows That Mr. Hanna's bert Fulford, another employe, is missing and may also be in the mins. lionaire Goes with Him to Halifax or St. John.

> Assist in Laying the Course of the Explorer.

nterest in the Historic Settlements Partly Responsible for the Commodore's Determination to Make the Remarkable Voyage.

WANDILL'S POT OF GOLD. Found It o His Farm While Digging a Post STANDARD OIL'S hole, fter It Had Been Buried for

NEW YORK, MOND LY, JULY 20, 1896.—12 PAGES.—COPYRIGHT, 1896, BY W. R. HEARST.

Thirty Years. Daniel Windell, an old resident of Conord, L. I., was last night gnarding a great big old-fashloned iron pot he dug up from man refuses to say, but it is said to be not far from $10,000. The money was buried by his motier, he says, over thirty years the Richmond road on the outskirts of Concord. It is one of those well-kept farms with a krge house painted white, and everything on the inside is a model of neat-ness. It was in this building over forty that Elwell and Crosby were missing. They were last seen early in the evening while loe Pilots Have Been Engaged to years ago that Wandell's father died and ten years later his mother was laid at rest from the same place.

when dug out of the ruins the remains of all three men were burned to a crisp, but were identified by jewelry which they

of the Explorer.

In the wanded land wanded a crisp, but were identified by jewelry which they

of the Explorer.

In the wanded land wanded land wanded land was crisp, and wanded land wanded land wanded land was crisp, and wanded land land wanded land wand The farm has been in the Wandell famcash to banks, but the treasure was hidden in different parts of the house and on the grounds. Daniel's mother before she died Imparted to him certain secrets which he has never divulged to his family, so he states. That there was a hidden treasure. of passion, caused by a dispute over a game of cards, W. W. Haraison, auditor of the Jacksonville, Tampa & Key West Rail
The Berlin dispatch published yesterday icin Olive Fremstad, of Cologne.

The Berlin dispatch published yesterday icin Olive Fremstad, of Cologne.

The Berlin dispatch published yesterday icin Olive Fremstad, of Cologne.

The parts of Loge, Fasoit, Erda, Frya and Mime were prescuted in an excellent man and the covered until yesterday, when the Midkand of the policial campaign in Brooklyn on Saturation and the property of the policial campaign in Brooklyn on Saturation and the policial campaign in Brooklyn on Satur road, dealt a death blow to Francis M. last few days preparatory to an extended Railroad Company and a gang of men dig- had purchased one half of the shares of the

VAST RUSSIAN DEAL.

Two Giant Trusts.

The Wandell homestead is situated on Rothschild's Influence Always in Favor of the Arrangement Just Completed.

Be Secured Any Time They

Portugal Unmolested for the Purpose of Enabling the Standard to Establish Quitations on Oll for European Export.

ly waged in the hotel corridors to-day. It is imposible to say definitely what the constitution will do. The Bryan men, the delegation where the two men and excavated about three feet and construction of Sixty-fifth street, Bay Ridge.

Railroad Company and a gang of men dig. In the sum of the same read, last night, in the reading room of the first Democratic meetings in Northern craises. The sung craft will problem to say definitely and a gang of men dig. In the following in the first Democratic meetings in the first Democ

WAGNER FEST BEGINS.

Many Americans Included in the Crowds Which Heard "Rheingold" Sung Yesterday at Bayreuth.

Bayreuth, July 19 .- There was a large assemblage, including many Americans, prescycle of Wagner's tetralogy, "Der Ring des Nibelungen," given under the auspices of Prince Regent Luitpoid, of Bavaria.

There was also a large crowd on the hill members eager to see the arrival of the prominent people who attended the per-

The cast was as follows: Wotan, Carl Brema, of London; Frya, Fraulein Marion Weed, of Beriln; Erda, Frau Helnk-Schu-mann, of Hamburg; Loge, Helnrich Vogel, Munich; Froh, Alois Burgstaller, of Bay-Breslau; Fasolt, Ernst Wachter, of Dresden; Mime, Mans Breuer, of Bayreuth; Alberich, Friedrich Friedrichs, of Bremen; Wellgunde, Fraulein Ketharina Rosing, of Chemnitz; Woglinde, Fraulein Josephine The Berlin dispatch published yesterday | von Artner, of Hamburg; Flosshilde, Fran-

OF THE CAMPAIGN.

Killed Because He Tried to Stop the Cryof 'Anarchy' at a Bryan Meeting.

on which the Festspielhaus is located, all its His Slayer Had Sought to Dis turb a Gathering of Brooklyn Democrats.

Perron, of Dresden; Fricka, Mine, Marle Sergeant-at-Arms Thornton, of the Jefferson Democratic Club, bors Cannot Account for His Act. Family of the Dead Man Are in Destitution.

boarded.

Ector and Haralson were warm friends and nearly every evening played cards.

Last night they were playing cribbage when control in the performance of the control in the master at arms of a local organization to divide the petroleum trade of the work of the orchestra, under the divide the petroleum trade of the work of the orchestra, under the divide the petroleum trade of the work of the orchestra, under the divide the petroleum trade of the work of the orchestra, under the daughters was bad.

The work of the orchestra, under the divide the petroleum trade of the work of the orchestra, under the divide the petroleum trade of the work of the orchestra, under the divide the petroleum trade of the work of the orchestra, under the divide the petroleum trade of the work of the orchestra, under the divide the petroleum trade of the work of the orchestra, under the divide the petroleum trade of the work of the orchestra, under the divide the petroleum trade of the work of the orchestra, under the divide the petroleum trade of the work of the orchestra, under the divide the petroleum trade of the work of the orchestra, under the daughters was bad.

The work of the orchestra, under the divide the petroleum trade of the work of the orchestra, under the divide the petroleum trade of the work of the orchestra, under the daughters was bad.

The work of the orchestra, under the divide the petroleum trade of the work of the orchestra, under the divide the petroleum trade of the work of the orchestra, under the divide the petroleum trade of the work of the orchestra, under the divide the petroleum trade of the work of the orchestra, under the divide the petroleum trade of the work of the orchestra, under the divide the petroleum trade of the work of the orchestra, under the divide the petroleum trade of the work of the orchestra, under the divide the petroleum trade of the work of the orchestra, under the divide the petroleum trade of the work of the orchestra, under the divide the petroleum trade of the work of the

ing might have followed.

Michael J. Thornton, of No. 67 Herber street, a citizen well known and respe is the murdered man. His wife and five small children are left destitute. His ar is in Raymond Street Juli. Tomlin also married, having four grown to by the horror of the deed.

Thornton was thirty-three yes teen years ago and male his home in Eighteenth Ward, of Brooklyn, where had lived ever since. When he had achi the distinction of American citizen became actively associated with the cratic party of his district, and in last was elected sergeant-at-arms Jefferson Democratic Club of p teenth Ward, an association of a standing, numbering among its many local leaders.

On Saturday last the club the back of the house No. 520 Humbola by Pairick Dunkin. The hall is large enough o accommodate three or four hundred. The barroom, being clear of liquors and free from business, was thrown open as the most convenient entrance to the hall, and it was there, within an hour of the cor mencement of the meeting, that the murder

The hall was filled soon after 8 o'clock and the greatest enthysiasm prevailed, Fireworks made bright the street in front, and a band of music played within.

was no split in the Jefferson Club. They were Democrats to the backbone, and came prepared to uphold the standard

Chicago. Tomlinson, a stranger, sat on one of the foremost benches, immediately next to ex-Fire Commissioner John Ennis, who Edward A. Langan, of No. 249 Withers.

street, the president of the club, occ. pied the chair and called the meeting to order. He delivered the opening address, in which he eulogized the Chicago platform and candidates amid the greatest enthusiasm. Only John Ennis noticed the discontent of Ex-Commissioner Engls then mounted the platform and submitted the ratification resolutions. These indersed Bryan and Sewall. They were seconded by James Tobin, a delegate to the Saratoga Convention, and manimously carried. Mr. Eanis then left the platform and took his sent beside Tomlinson, who, he noticed, was still mutter-and, after giving a lengthy explanation of

TOMMNSON IS VIOLENT.
Tombleson, it was afterward ascertained, is an Englishman, and it was here that he began to shout aloud that the speakers and members of the club were "Anarchists and Populists." No one shouted back at him, and there was no effort made to eject him from the hall. His cries provoked more laughter and good humor than anger.

Ex-Commissioner Ennis looked at his next neighbor and quietly remarked that he ought to try and behave like a gentle man. Tomliason thereupon arose and walked out of the hall fitto the unused. saloon in front. There he began in a loud voice to harangue the people outside, who were unable to gain admission in the crowded place. Mr. Pickard continued his address, but the noise which Tomlinson made outside was disturbing the meetinm and after a few minutes Sergeant-at-Arms Thornton walked down the hall. Mr. Pickard finished his speech, and was followed by John McMahon. It was not unt'l half an hour later that the speakers and their hearers knew there had been a trag-

the silver question, switched off into patriotic sentiments. To quote another member of the club, he "twisted the lion's tall."

ng adverse criticisms of the proceedings. William S. Pickard then took the floor, is a member of the club.

sat on his immediate right.

ling moderation all day. Senator Stewart and General Weaver advocate Bryan's indorsement, without regard to the future of the Populistic party. Senator Peffer concedes the necessity of preserving the organization, but urges Bryan's indorsement, and a fusion or alexatory of preserving the organization, but urges Bryan's indorsement, and a fusion on electoral tickets. He is opposed to the nomination of a third ticket. Simmered down, the situation is this: With but few exceptions all would rather see Bryan elected than McKinley, one element favors the indorsement of Bryan and a fusion with the Democrats if possible another element believes a third ticket should be nominated to force the Democrats into a fusion with the Populists in the silver States. General Weaver and Senator Stewart met

Chairman Taubeneck in the lobby of the Lindell to-day. The three began discussing "What are you for, Taubeneck?" asked Senator Stewart. 'A third ticket and our own platform," replied the chairman.

terest," said Stewart. 'The feeling among some of the delegates ls in favor of joining with the Republi-cans," retorted Taubeneck. Senator Stewart's indignation gave his you don't want Bryan elected; you want of thing wont do, and there's no reason am mistaken, but it does not matter "Let me explain, said Haraison." to plan the trip. He desires to establish a whether or not you bolt, the masses in the Populist party are for Bryan and will vote "The man will vote" for him irrespective of what certain leaders advise."

J. S. Coxey, of Massillon, O., he who was warned off the grass in Washington, arrived to-day. Mr. Coxey has a plan so complicated that no one understands it. The main point is that he is against Brysnia indersement.

Is a fool," exclaimed Haralson.

Ector sprang at Haralson and grasped him by the throat. Haralson pushed him away, but he returned to the attack, and as he did so Haralson struck him over the head with a heavy chair. Ector fell unconscious and died at 5 o'clock this morning.

The extent of the cruise will be determined by the nature of the difficulties encountered. Aside from his interest in the Northern regions, Mr. Gould rather enjoys the element of danger incurred.

The Basin of Minas will be visited and the southern shore of Nova Scotia. The control has been numped out as far as Hall-an's indersement.

Ignatius Donnelly, of Minnesota, came in this afternoon. Mr. Donnelly prefers Bryan to McKinley and thinks fusion with Democrats should be forced if it cannot be accomplished by mutual concesions.

Senntor Peffer's Plan.

There was a conference of Populistic leaders in Senator Peffer's room at the Lindell this afternoon. Mr. Peffer suggested that "The man who won't hear an explanation yachtsmen.

THOMAS TOMLINSON

new course for venturesome New York accompany Mr. Gould further than Hallfax

MURDER AT A POLITICAL CLUB WHICH LEAVES A FAMILY DESTITUTE.

The ratification meeting of the Jefferson Democratic Club, Brooklyn, on Saturday night, to indorse Bryan and Sewall, was interrupted by sudden death. Thomas Tomlinson had disturbed the gathering by cries of "Anarchy," and the sergeantat-arms, Michael J. Thornton, endeavored to quiet him. Tomilinson stabbed him. He fled, but was arrested yesterday morning. Thornton leaves a wife and five children. The meeting was held in a saloon in Humboldt street.